Lawyers Around the World is a program designed to highlight the diverse legal and academic experience and expertise within Northwestern's LLM program through student-led presentations. LLM students will share about their law practice in their home countries and engage with audience questions to facilitate a dialogue about particular areas of the law from a global perspective.

Panelists include:

- Luiz Eduardo Jahic (Brazil)
- Manuela Zuluaga (Colombia)
- Juan Pedro Torassa (Argentina)
- Sofia Ramirez Huitron (Mexico)

Moderated by:
Daniel Gonzalez Contreras (Mexico)